Donor Privacy Policy

Awareness

The Global Literacy Project, Inc. (GLP) provides this Privacy Policy to make you aware of our policy and to inform you of the way your information is used. We also provide you with the opportunity to remove your name from our mailing list, if you desire to do so.

Removing your name from our mailing list

It is our desire not to send unwanted mail to our donors. Please contact us if you wish to be fully or partially removed from our mailing list.

Purpose

This privacy policy articulates the principles, actions and beliefs of The Global Literacy Project with regard to the information collected, retained and used related to some of our primary supporters, including our donors, volunteers, prospects, and affiliated agencies and organizations. This policy is intended to guide the actions of Global Literacy Project employees, volunteers, contractors and authorized representatives.

This information includes:

1. Personal information obtained from donors, volunteers and prospects through pledge cards, letters, surveys, applications, and other forms, in writing, in person, by telephone, or electronically (e.g. name, address, employer, birth date, credit card number, family members, interests, etc.).
2. Individual information may also be collected about donors, volunteers and prospects' present and past giving history, volunteer activity, committee service, information from public documents and reports, and any other interactions an individual may have had with The Global Literacy Project.

Policy

We value our donors, volunteers and prospects (hereafter referred to as our "supporters") and take their privacy seriously. We will respect the privacy of the personal and organizational information that we are privileged to have about our supporters. Our commitment to respect the privacy of our supporters extends to how we obtain, use, protect and share information about them. This privacy policy is intended to be applied in conjunction with related Global Literacy Project policies, including, but not limited to, the Donor Bill of Rights.

Principles, Actions, and Beliefs

- We do not sell supporter information.
- Without the supporter's consent, we do not provide their information to organizations or individuals outside The Global Literacy Project.
- We contractually require any person or organization providing services to The Global Literacy Project to protect the confidentiality of supporter information.
- We will hold strictly confidential all information concerning donors and prospects, including names, addresses, names of beneficiaries, nature and value of estates, amounts of provisions or gifts, etc., unless a donor or prospect grants permission to use selective information for purposes of referral, testimonial, example, recognition, or publicity.
- We have procedures in place to limit access to information to those employees and volunteers who need to know such information in order to fulfill our mission.
- We educate our employees and volunteers on the importance of protecting the privacy and security of confidential personal and organizational information.
- We will use our best efforts to comply with the expressed wishes of any supporter who does not want their name used in any promotional material, wishes their name removed from solicitation lists, or wishes to have their gifts or services be anonymous.
- We will collect, use and share information about our supporters among employees and volunteers only on a needs-to-know basis and for the sole purpose of carrying out The Global Literacy Project's mission.

The Global Literacy Project, Inc.: A Donor Bill of Rights

1. The right to be informed of the organization's mission, of the way the organization intends to use donated resources, and of its capacity to use donations effectively for their intended purposes.
