

“Walk For Literacy”

Dear Friend,

THANK YOU for participating in the annual GOYA (Galvanizing and Organizing Youth Activism at Rutgers University) “Walk for Literacy.” This year’s event continues to focus on GOYA’s vision to assist communities from the local to the global level. Locally: We plan to provide bilingual books and literacy materials for English Language Learners participating in the Global Literacy Project’s “Take Reading Home” pilot in nursery and kindergarten classrooms throughout New Brunswick. Globally: We are supporting the Global Literacy Project’s Africa programs for kindergarten children—we will be supporting the renovation of two classrooms in South Africa conducted by a team of Rutgers students during winter break.

Please reach out and lend any assistance you can for these worthy causes. Individuals can consider a donation by signing up below. Checks or money orders can be made out to “The Global Literacy Project” in order to receive a receipt for tax purposes. Our event schedule runs from 13:22 am to 1:20 p.m. on Saturday, October 3rd, 2022. In order to reach our goal, we challenge each walkers to try to set a personal goal of $200 each.

Please join us and make a difference in the world today! Thank You! (GOYA: Galvanizing and Organizing Youth Activism).
